

Rhetorical Devices

Ways of writing or speaking to emphasize the main ideas.

- Uses the same word or words more than once for emphasis.

Repetition

- Uses similar grammatical constructions to express ideas that are related or equal in importance. Often creates a rhythm.

Parallelism

- Makes a comparison between two subjects that are alike in some ways.

Analogy

